R. and W. Construction Company Will Establish Branch Office in Appleton—Has Contract For Installation of the Machines

Installation of two new 5,000 kilowatt electric generators in the power house of the Wisconsin Traction Light, Heat and Power company here by the recently organized R. and W. Construction company, will make the local power plant the largest in Wisconsin, outside of Milwaukee.

The contract for installation of the new apparatus will result in the establishment here of a branch office of the R. and W. Construction company from which all its work in this state will be directed. P. E. Widsten, secretary-treasurer of the company, will reside here permanently and will have charge of the office as resident engineer.

The company is made up of E. C. Rutz, president and Mr. Widsten, Rutz will have charge of the Chicago office at 55 So. Desplaines street. This concern recently was awarded the contract for building a power plant for the Mauston Electric Light company at Mauston, Wis. It has also been given charge of a large construction project for the Indianapolis Light and Heat company at Indianapolis, Ind.

Both men in the company are electrical and construction engineers of long experience. They were connected with the Woodmansee-Davidson Engineering company of Chicago up until April 1.

Mr. Widsten lived in Appleton for about two years while he had charge of the construction of the addition to the Traction company's powerhouse and installation of its electrical units about two years ago. He also supervised the bleach plant of the Kimberly-Clark company at Kimberly; the Atlas mill here and rebuilding of the Nuclear power house.

Several detail men will be employed here continuously after the company's branch office is established. A large force of construction experts will be available for all kinds of construction work and for installation and repair of electrical apparatus, especially on a large scale.

The units to be installed by the Traction company are now being manufactured by the Allis-Chalmers company at West Allis, Wis. The first machine will be ready for delivery within a few weeks. No additional building will be required, inasmuch as the present plant has facilities for the new equipment.

The new machines will generate approximately 15,000 horsepower, increasing the plant's capacity to 10,000. Of this immense power only 2,000 horsepower is generated by water and consequently the plant is able to furnish capacity service regardless of river conditions. Many Wisconsin plants which have a high power rating are able to furnish power is limited quantities only because of the instability of their power source.

Fort Smith, Ark.—Twenty-five known dead, from 75 to 125 injured and the casualty list growing as communication was established with isolated districts, was reported today from the wind-wrecked parts of Yell, Logan, Franklin, Scott, Johnson and Boone counties, Arkansas.

Communication with some parts of the hill country, hit by the Sunday night series of gales, probably will not be established for a day. Reports continued to filter through of small villages and cross-road hamlets being wrecked.

Eighteen deaths were reported in Yell county, four in Johnson and from three to fifteen in Logan county. Harkey's Valley, Cabin Creek, Howe's Creek, Hicketytown, Blaine and Belleville were reported the towns hardest hit.

Property damage was reported to run into the tens of thousands of dollars.

Negro Lynched By Mob After Attack On Girl

Officers Over-

By United Press Leased Wire
Pittsburgh, Kan.—An unidentified tramp paid with his life for an assault on Sylvia Brown, 15, in the country two miles northwest of Mulberry.

The black was hanged to the nearest telephone pole last night after a mob had literally torn apart the small town jail. For an hour Sheriff Gould held the mob off, persuading angry men to let the law take its course.

Suddenly someone brought the badly injured girl to the door of the jail. The crazed negro threw up his hands, screaming in despair, thus identifying his victim before she had a chance to identify him.

That settled the fate of the negro. The crowd went wild and stormed the jail. Sheriff Gould and two other officers were overpowered. The mob tore out the barred windows. The crazed negro was dragged through the hole in the wall, a rope about his neck. He was hoisted on the nearest pole.

A white boy, who said he was Thomas Franklin Caldwell, workman, 16, Springfield, Ill., and who was with the negro at the time of the assault, was saved from hanging by officers who took him away while the black was being strung up.

RAIL REPAIRMEN WILL QUIT UNLESS DEMANDS ARE MET

WALKOUT IS PLANNED FOR APRIL 28—OUTLAW STRIKE
LEADERS ARE RE-
ARRESTED

By United Press Leased Wire
Chicago.—Maintenance of way employees who threatened a nation-wide strike last February, will walk out individually in large numbers April 28, unless their wage demands are recognized, leaders here declared today.

E. F. Grable, of Detroit, president of the organization, has been petitioned to make a request to President Wilson for a temporary increase of $1 a day with time and a half for overtime pending a decision of the railroad labor board on the employees' wage demands. The General Chairmen's Association of the northwest district made the appeal in a telegram last night.

Representatives of 38,000 railway clerks and freight handlers favor pursuing legal methods instead of strikes to force their wage demands, they indicated today.

Arrest of 25 other leaders of the outlaw switchmen's strike was expected today following announcement by District Attorney Cline that he would seek new warrants. John Gruman, Harold Reading, R. W. Radke and Samuel Cartwright, alleged leaders of the outlaw strike, were in jail today for refusal to furnish bond. Re-arrested strike officials, according to Cline, were taken because they violated agreements not to attend meetings of strikers.

Railroad conditions in the middle west were rapidly approaching normal today following the strike.

No Strike Authorized
Detroit.—The Brotherhood of Maintenance of Way and Railway Shop Laborers will not authorize any strike pending decision on wage demands by President Wilson's railroad labor board, E. F. Grable, president, declared here today.

"The brotherhood is awaiting the decision of the tripartite railroad labor board and any strike pending the conclusion of negotiations will be unauthorized by our organization," Grable said.

DEVELOP FOREIGN TRADE TO SUPPLANT REACTION

By United Press Leased Wire
St. Louis, Mo.—Development of foreign trade by the middle west to supplant impending reaction in the present 40 per cent abnormal domestic consumption, must be stimulated or the nation will face a financial panic, delegates declared at the opening of the Mississippi Valley Association convention here today.

Financial experts at the convention characterized the present unnatural foreign trade as a "false dawn," the result of the present world chaos.

Plans to enlarge foreign trade from $4,000,000,000 a year in their territory to double that amount, were considered by the 750 representatives of twenty-seven Mississippi valley states.

Extension of waterways, use of the Gulf, Pacific ports and the Panama canal in opening up greater trade relations with China, was urged by Julian Arnold, trade expert and former commercial attaché of the American legation in Peking, China.

Grave concern was expressed by delegates regarding abnormal consumption. This consumption, described as "crazed buying by the public," has begun to react, making foreign trade necessary to fill its place, speakers and experts declared.

Agua Prieta, Sonora.—Carranzista troops failed in their first effort to penetrate Sonora through Pulpito Pass on the Chihuahua border, according to messengers arriving here today.

With concrete breastworks and machine guns clamped to the sides of the pass, it proved a death trap to the federal troops, according to the reports of the messengers.

No casualties were reported among the Sonora defenders, and no information was available on the Carranzista losses, the messengers stated.

The Carranzista soldiers in thin skirmish lines last night felt out the strength of the defense. A stronger effort to force through the pass is expected shortly but officers of the Sonora declare that the narrow passage and the new defenses made it possible for fifty men to hold the pass against an army.

Anticipating that the Carranza attack upon the Sonora and Sinaloa rebels from the more vulnerable Durango border, secessionist forces are being hurried there. Detachments of Yaqui and Mayo Indians friendly to the anti-Carranza cause have been sent south into Sinaloa to guard the wide passes in the Durango mountains.

The Sonora army chiefs are counting upon Villistas to protect the southern Chihuahua-Sonora line from an approach of Carranzista forces.

Washington, D. C.—General Benjamin Hill, leader of Obregon's rebels, was wounded in fighting at Contreras, near Mexico City last night, the Mexican embassy announced today. Most of Hill's followers were killed, the embassy asserted.

General Eduardo Hernandez, leading a "strong force," is pursuing Governor Enrique Estrada of Zacatecas, who revolted against Carranza. The Zacatecas legislature remained loyal and named Jesus Sanchez acting governor, the embassy announced.

(By Ralph H. Turner)
Mexico City.—Nine rebels were killed in a clash between government troops and Obregon rebels under General Benjamin Hill, it was announced officially here.

The engagement occurred in the federal district surrounding Mexico City, the statement said.

General Hill, the state said, sent a note to the federal commander announcing he had entered the field against the Carranza government and asking the troops to join the movement.

The commander answered by marching on the rebels immediately. It was the first clash in the district around Mexico City and was the first official information confirming reports that General Obregon has started active organization of a rebel movement.

Obregon, who was a candidate for the presidency, recently fled from the capital with General Hill, after he had been accused of plotting against the government.

General Jules Barragan, chief of staff, also announced tonight that General Enrique Estrada, governor of the state of Zacatecas, had withdrawn his support from the government and left the state capital with a regiment of soldiers.

The governor of Michoacan was reported unofficially to have taken the same action.

Agua Prieta, Sonora.—Sonora troops and Mexican federal forces were skirmishing on the east border of Sonora, along the Sierra Madre mountains, near Pulpito Pass, according to reports received at military headquarters of the "republic of Sonora" here tonight.

Another unconfirmed report said Sonora troops were in contact with the Carranza forces along the Sonora Chihuahua border.

"OUTLAWS" PRESENT CASE

Protests of Union Chiefs Against Ac-

By United Press Leased Wire
Washington.—Chiefs of the established rail unions today appeared before the railroad labor board to present arguments supporting their demands for wage increases totaling $1,100,000,000 annually for 2,000,000 workers, including most of the "outlaw" strikers.

Among those who appeared at the hearing were President L. E. Sheppard, Order of Railway Conductors; Vice-president Doak, Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen; President Tim-othy Shea, Brotherhood of Railway Firemen; and President Warren S. Stone, Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers.

Meanwhile chiefs of newly organized "outlaw" unions were also preparing a written statement of demands to file with the board.

Edward McHugh, representing Jersey City "outlaws," said they would not return to work until assurances were received that the board would give immediate attention to their case.

Get Outlaws' Reasons
James Eubanks and W. A. Robinson, representing yardmen's associations of St. Louis and Chicago respectively, today filed with the railroad labor board written requests for investigation of their claims for higher wages.

They, like McHugh, speak for the so-called "outlaw" strikers' organizations. Each asked for a hearing by the board separately from the hearing to be granted officials of 18 established rail unions.

Chairman Barton of the board overruled the protest of Doak of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen against acceptance of the yardmen's requests. Barton said the board could not refuse to receive requests for action but that later it would decide whether it should hear the "outlaws" separately. He emphasized that under rulings of the board the outlaws must comply with the law which is taken to mean they must return to work.

Immediately after receipt of the communications the board began hearing arguments for the wage increases asked by the established unions.

Doak opened the arguments.

Full Crews On Job
Milwaukee.—With full crews agreeing to report for work at the Northwestern road terminal before night and 136 working at the Milwaukee road terminals, according to railroad officials, the tanks of the striking switchmen are depleted today by 278 men. At the Northwestern office, it was announced that the early morning shift today had returned 100 per cent. Nineteen engines were in operation for the first time since the strike began.

Strike to End Tomorrow
Chicago.—The "outlaw" rail strike will end tomorrow, officials of the Chicago Yardmen's Association announced today. An effort will be made, they said, to persuade all strikers affiliated with the Chicago organization to report for work.

Many public officers will address a mass meeting here tomorrow to tell the strikers they are not fighting in the divided roads but the government. Federal Judge Landis and Police Chief Garrity were among speakers chosen.

Twenty-five additional warrants charging violation of the Lever act were sworn out against strike leaders. Railroad here reported conditions throughout the midwest approaching normal with a far larger influx of switchmen than at any time in the last two weeks.

Four Plans To Aid Soldiers Are Proposed

House Ways and Means Committee Is Working on Four-fold Proposition Which Is to be Submitted to Congress
Soon

(By Herbert L. Walker)
By United Press Leased Wire
Washington.—A four-fold soldier aid program, giving the service men the option of a cash bonus, credit toward purchase of a farm or home, vocational training or paid up government insurance is now being formulated by the house ways and means committee, Chairman Fordney said today.

Four subcommittees have been considering the four proposals during the last three weeks and it is expected their recommendations will be combined into one bill which will be reported to the house next week, according to Fordney. The combined plan in the main follows demands of the American Legion.

All of the four optional propositions would be based on the number of days a man served. Likewise, all forms of aid would be limited to the men who suffered the heaviest financial losses. This class numbers about three million out of the 4,800,000 enrolled in the army, navy and marine corps.

At present the committee is considering proposals to fix these amounts at from $1 to $1.75 for each day served.

The credits planned in other sections of the bill to aid in home or land buying, vocational training or the continued cost of government insurance probably will be about fifty cents for each day's service in excess of the cash bonus figure.

Members of congress who are advocating a soldier bonus "to obtain favor with the service men," will find that in a short time they will be faced "with the wrath of the American people," Representative Good, Iowa, chairman of the appropriations committee, declared in a speech today.

"Good's was the first direct attack against bonus legislation on the floor of the house."

"A bonus to soldiers means increased prices, higher taxes, less work, less production and more discontent among the 106,000,000 people who did not serve in the armed forces during the war," said Good.

"The American people, when these facts are known, will not stand for congress distributing from $1,000,000,000 to $2,000,000,000 among the service men."

"Where the money is coming from, I don't know, other than it would be from an empty treasury. We have a deficit of $2,000,000,000 now which before the end of the year will be increased to $4,000,000,000. The unanimous opinion of all men before my committee is that war taxes are mainly responsible for the increased cost of living."

"Giving the soldier a bonus places them in the same class as men who profited out of the war," he said.

"I believe it is an injustice to them to do so."

"I would say to the service men: As you saved the union before, you must now assist your government in bridging over these troubled times by making every effort to bring about normal conditions."

Chicago, Bainbridge Colby, now secretary of state and former progressive leader, was connected with the temporary chairmanship of the Democratic convention in gossip here today.

With scores of Democratic leaders here for the meetings of the executive and arrangement committees it was believed that at least a recommendation for the temporary chairmanship will be made. In addition to names previously put forth five possibilities were mentioned today. They are Colby, Martin Glynn of New York, Homer Cummings, Carter Glass and Arthur E. Smith of Nebraska.

Officially, none of the executive committees could state a selection would be made today.

The arrangements committee occupied itself largely with matters of transportation for the hosts which will head for San Francisco at convention time.

ALLIED PREMIERS READY TO PRESENT TREATY TO TURKS

PRESIDENT WILSON TO BE TOLD

(By Camillo Cianfara)
By United Press Leased Wire
San Remo.—Trebizond will remain Turkish and will not be awarded to Armenia, it was learned authoritatively last night.

The allied communication to President Wilson, on the Turkish treaty, will be divided into two parts, it was learned. The first section will deal with the general principles inspiring the treaty while the second will give specific reasons for each decision and reply to the American president's observations, particularly as to why the allied leaders have decided Trebizond must remain Turkish.

The council of premiers late today took up the financial clauses of the Turkish pact and called in experts to get advice on some sections. The last part of the sitting was devoted to disposition of Kurdistan, which was considered most difficult because of the divergence of opinion among the population.

The question probably will be settled by mandates over the district being awarded to one or more powers.

Turks Get Treaty May 10
The Turkish treaty will be presented to the Ottoman delegates in Paris May 10, it was announced officially.

Vittorio Scialoja, the Italian foreign minister, and Premier Venizelos, of Greece, had a long conference today. After the meeting, Venizelos said definite settlement of all the phases of the Turkish treaty probably would not be accomplished at the present session, because of the impossibility of enforcement under the present arrangement.

The principle of equality of the great powers in Turkey, however, should be disposed of before the conference adjourns, Venizelos said.

Millerand Disappointed
The early meeting of the premiers and foreign ministers was somewhat stormy, it was learned. Premier Millerand, of France, was reported to have voiced his emphatic demand for complete solidarity among the Al-

For the first time a woman took part today in an executive conference of a major political party, when Mrs. George Bass, national committee woman from Illinois, attended the meeting of the committee on arrangements of the Democratic national committee. Mrs. Bass is one of two women members of the committee.

The other is Miss Mary Foy of Los Angeles. She is expected to attend by early today had not arrived.

Mrs. Bass is empowered to cast an equal vote with other members and will have a say in the selection of the temporary chairman of the convention to be held at San Francisco. This was expected to be settled today.

Homer Cummings, chairman of the national committee, presided. Several names were discussed, it was learned. These included Champ Clark, James Hamilton Lewis, who is also mentioned for the vice-presidency; Carter Harrison, former mayor of Chicago, and Senator Hitchcock.

The executive committee was also scheduled to meet. Under the Democratic system of a woman and a man from each state to sit on the national committee, there are 34 members on this committee.

VOTE IN GEORGIA AND NEBRASKA WILL INDICATE HOW PEOPLE FEEL TO- WARD WILSON

By United Press Leased Wire
New York.—The present administration is facing the test of Democratic opinion in two states today.

Commoner is Making Strenuous Effort to Win Place in Democratic Convention—Pershing is Factor in Nebraska's Primary

In Georgia, Attorney General A. Mitchell Palmer has conducted his campaign for the presidential nomination almost wholly on the record of the Wilson government and has declared himself in sympathy with the president's attitude toward the pact and covenant.

Opposing Palmer are the forces of Senator Hoke Smith, Thomas Hardwick, former senator, and Thomas E. Watson, former congressman. William G. McAdoo, who also stands back of the record of the administration, is expected to receive a fairly large "written in" vote. This was the first state in which McAdoo refused to allow his name on a primary ballot.

Georgia has 28 delegates to the national convention. It's presidential vote in 1916 was 127,763 for Wilson to 11,294 for Charles Evans Hughes.

The Democratic primary in Nebraska has resulted in a revival of the feud between William J. Bryan and Senator Gilbert Hitchcock. The former is a candidate for delegate-at-large to the San Francisco convention. Hitchcock consented to have his name on the ballot that he may oppose Bryan.

Pershing is Factor
Nebraska has 16 Democratic delegates. Its last presidential vote was 158,827 for Wilson and 171,771 for Hughes.

The Republican also have an interesting situation in Nebraska. General John J. Pershing is making his first real bid for the Republican nomination. He is opposed by Major General Wood and Senator Hiram Johnson. Political wisecracks have it all figured out that two army men will "split the conservative vote, giving Johnson a good chance for the state's endorsement."

The republican state convention in Delaware is expected to choose an un instructed delegation of six.

Heavy Vote Expected
By United Press Leased Wire
Lincoln, Neb.—Voters—both men and women—today cast ballots to express their choice of candidates in both major parties in the state-wide presidential preferential primary election.

Clear skies greeted the voters in most sections of the state today but almost impassable roads in some districts interfered with the rural vote. Heavy registration was reported.

General John J. Pershing, Major General Leonard Wood and Senator Hiram Johnson are candidates for the Republican presidential endorsement.

Senator G. M. Hitchcock is contesting for the Democratic presidential vote with Robert Ross, Lexington, Nebraska. The possibility of "written in" names on the Democratic ticket was seen by politicians.

Each party will today elect sixteen delegates to the national conventions pledged to support the presidential candidate receiving the highest vote at the primary.

Bryan Attacks Hitchcock
Democratic voters showed interest in William J. Bryan's appeal to be elected Nebraska's delegate-at-large to the national convention, rivaling that of the presidential contest. While Bryan has declared he will be present at the San Francisco convention in some capacity, his defeat today would mean that he can not take an active part on the convention floor.

Bryan throughout the primary campaign urged the defeat of Hitchcock, charging that the Nebraska senator is backed by Wall street interests and the "hook and snare" plank in the Democratic platform.

The voters today also selected the party nominees for congress from all districts and those nominees for state offices.

Men's styles change so frequently that merchants must have a greater profit on each sale. Their stock must be disposed of, for should they hold them over for another year they might not be able to sell a single suit.

We eliminate this; each made-to-measure suit we sell is made for an individual; made to his measure, insuring fit and fabric—we have no large stock to dispose of; no interest to put on the price of the suit to the consumer.

CUBS PUT SKID UNDER ST. LOUIS CARDINALS

ST. LOUIS.—St. Louis used five pitchers in an attempt to stop Chicago on Monday, finally losing 9 to 6 in the twelfth inning, when, with two out and two on base, Vaughn singled, scoring Paskert, and Plack doubled to deep center, counting Deal and Vaughn.

Hornsbey made the first home run of the season here in the second inning, driving the ball into the right field pavilion.

Score: Chicago 9, St. Louis 6.

NEW YORK GIANTS WIN FIRST GAME, 2-1

NEW YORK.—The New York Nationals won their first game of the season on Monday, defeating Philadelphia, 2 to 1. Young, who had failed to make a hit up to Monday, drove in both of New York's runs. Hornsbey, who was knocked out of the box in the opening game here last Thursday, pitched a steady game and turned back the Philadelphia batsmen whenever he was in real danger. Score: Philadelphia 1, New York 2.

BRAVES' ERRORS COSTLY; DODGERS WIN, 4 TO 2

BROOKLYN.—Timely hitting behind home fielding by Boston gave Brooklyn their second victory of the season on Monday. Maranville's shortstop playing was particularly bad, two of his errors being responsible for three runs. A wild throw by O'Neill let in the fourth. Games not only pitched steady ball, but his hitting also featured. He made two doubles, a single and a sacrifice in four trips to the plate. Score: Boston 2, Brooklyn 4.

BEANEATERS TAKE TWO GAMES FROM THE YANKS

BOSTON.—Boston took morning and afternoon patriotic games from New York on Monday, 6 to 5 and 5 to 2. Hoyt yielded but five hits in the morning, while Mordridge was hit hard in the third and sixth innings.

In the afternoon Mays, pitching his first game of the season and against his old enemy, was so good as to shut out the Yankees for four hits until the ninth, when the Yanks got three singles and a run.

Both appeared here in other than Red Sox uniform for the first time. He made a single and a double in the morning game and a single in the afternoon. Score: Boston 6, New York 5.

WASHINGTON SHUTS OUT PHILADELPHIA, 7 TO 0

PHILADELPHIA.—A scratch double with the bases full broke Perry and Washington defeated Philadelphia, 7 to 0, in the opening game of the series. Schacht kept the locals hit scattered. Score: Washington 7, Philadelphia 0.

RALLY IN NINTH WINS FOR CLEVELAND, 7 TO 6

CLEVELAND.—Cleveland defeated Detroit on Monday, 7 to 6, winning in the ninth inning on Nunnemaker's single and a sacrifice. Nunnemaker, who was the third first baseman used by Cleveland, rounded with the bases filled in the seventh, tying the score. O'Brien pitched brilliantly until the seventh, when he lost his control. All of Detroit's errors except the last were the result of errors. Score: Cleveland 7, Detroit 6.

NOT MUCH CLASS IS SHOWN IN THE FIRST WEEK OF BALL SEASON

PIRATES ENTITLED TO TOP POSITION IN NATIONAL LEAGUE — NEW YORK IS WEAK

By United Press Staff Writer
New York.—Baseball rounds into its second week today with the Pirates leading the National League and the Red Sox and White Sox splitting the honor in the American League.

Figures for last week including yesterday's games, show that George Gibson is running his Pirates along on merits but that the American League leaders are not entitled to their place.

The Pirates are getting good pitching, hitting the ball and playing a tight defensive game. They have made 41 hits, second to the Cards with 43 hits—they have made only four errors and allowed their opponents only eight runs.

The Reds and the Robins have been playing consistent ball. Both are third in number of hits. The Reds are playing a little tighter ball and getting a shade on the pitching.

The Cubs and the Giants are in the cellar where they belong on the class of ball they have been playing. The first string of pitchers of both clubs have failed them miserably.

The showing of the Boston Braves and the Phils easily was the feature of the first week.

Cleveland belongs in first place in the American League. Tris Speaker's Indians in all around baseball were easily the class of the league. They lead in the number of runs with 20, in the number of hits with 35, least in errors with one. Their pitching, too, has been high class.

Mid-season work from his pitchers has been the feature of Kid Gleason's showing. The league champions owe their place to Claude Williams and Eddie Cicotte, the old "reliable," and a few timely punches from E. Collins and others.

The Red Sox have no business at the top of the ladder and they won't remain there very long. Outside of the Yankees, they had the weakest hitting club in the league. The Yanks, by the way, are causing some of the Gophers to change their minds. They look just as badly as they did last year. The poor "Tigers"—if Jennings had some pitchers with the "murderer's row" in his outfield—but he hasn't and he's in the cellar with the Senators.

THIS WEEK IS TO DECIDE IF CITY IS TO HAVE BALL CLUB

VERY LITTLE FINANCIAL SUPPORT IS RECEIVED AND PROMOTERS ARE LOSING HEART

This week will wind up the campaign for funds for the Appleton baseball club, and unless a miracle happens, this city will not be represented in the Fox River valley league, leaders of the movement said today.

Appleton, one of the biggest cities in the circuit, has failed miserably in the effort to raise $3,000 to put a club in the field. More than $2,000 in needed, after two weeks of campaigning. Kimberly, Kaukauna, Oshkosh, Menasha and New London, are all set and ready, while this city is still in the rut, with little chance of crawling out.

Failure of the citizens to support the league financially is taking one of the best teams in the circuit away from this city. Manager Dutch Sylvester says "We have a team right now that would be equal to any in this league, and capable of playing ball equal to that of the W-I league of former days. We have a good fast infield, two clever outfielders, and Bruce Noel, star southpaw, to take care of the pitching."

Only one hundred fans have subscribed for the fund, it was said today. Most of the subscribers are for small amounts. Many of the men who were expected to contribute generously have either refused outright or else donated only a small part of what had been expected. Solicitors have been met with the question, "What good will a ball club do here?"

The money raised is not for the team, but is to be used in getting a ball park for the club, it is pointed out. The locals have been unable to secure the Interlake park, except for the opening game here May 9.

The rest of the cities in the league are making big preparations for the opening of the season May 2. Kimberly will have an opening day, with a band and all the rest of the trimmings, according to George Hogriever, league president. Kimberly raised more than $2,500 in less than a week. It is reported that Harvey Stock of Lake shore league fame, is to hurl for Kimberly this season.

"The rest of the teams are all set, with the exception of Appleton," Hogriever said. "This week will wind matters up, and if this city doesn't come thru the league will go on nevertheless."

It is said that there are two other cities anxiously waiting to grab up Appleton's franchise in the new circuit.

Some high class pitchers will grace the line-ups of the various teams. Buster Braun, Sheboygan, is reported to have signed up with Kaukauna, which will give the Electric city a real team. Oshkosh has Stevenson, of W-I league fame, Chief Williams, another old W-I league player who performed for a while with Appleton, is to manage New London.

Charles Herschleb of Chicago was in the city Monday calling on friends. Mr. Herschleb is a graduate of Lawrence college and is connected with the foreign work department of the Y. M. C. A. He was secretary for nine years in Shantung, China.

APPLETON WOMAN WINS CUSTODY OF HER GRANDDAUGHTER

MRS. MARY MEYERS RETURNS FROM ESCANABA WITH CRYSTAL BULLARD AFTER COURT BATTLE

After one of the most sensational trials in the annals of the Escanaba court, the custody of ten year old Crystal Bullard, for whom two grandmothers were fighting, was awarded to Mrs. Mary Meyers of Appleton last Saturday noon. The case attracted the attention of the entire northern peninsula of Michigan and the trial was attended by large crowds. A large number of Appleton people testified as character witnesses in behalf of Mrs. Meyers. Fred V. Heinemann, district attorney, was one of Mrs. Meyers' attorneys.

Evidence brought out at the trial showed that the child had been making its home in Appleton until it went to Escanaba to visit her other grandmother, Mrs. Myrtle Graham. The latter refused to allow the child to return to Appleton and Mrs. Meyers started habeas corpus proceedings to regain custody of the youngster, alleging that Mrs. Graham was not the proper person to bring up the child.

The Escanaba woman testified that the child was not treated well here but this was refuted by Appleton witnesses who know Mrs. Meyers and the girl.

The court in its decision held that Mrs. Graham had not told the truth about conditions in the Meyers home in Appleton; that she had not been fair to the other grandmother in talking to the child, and that her actions were such that she should not have the care, custody and upbringing of a ten year old girl.

Beginning May 1st until Nov. 1st, Dental offices will close at 1 P. M. every Saturday.

CANADA BARS SEVERAL MAGAZINES FROM MAIL

New postal rulings received by the postoffice require that the limit of weight for single copies of books sent to Canada hereafter is to be 10 pounds. It is also possible to send books to the United Kingdom of Great Britain by mail without the payment of import license.

Another regulation bars several propaganda publications from transmission to Canada, such as the "Hearst", "Truth Seeker", "Jim Jam Jones" and all I. W. W. publications. The Police Gazette has been barred for some time, but appears to have been removed from the prohibitive list.

MANY ADVANTAGES IN CONSOLIDATION

GRADESCHOOLPRINCIPALAYERS PUPILS HAVE BETTER EDUCATIONAL CHANCE IN LARGE SCHOOL.

Principal Richard Bubolz of the Cicero state graded school, has prepared a list of advantages offered by consolidated schools which are now under consideration in several school districts of the county. They are: Provides better teachers. Schools can be more closely supervised.

More competition through larger classes brings about better class work. Pupils receive instructions in manual training and domestic art. Only one building need be kept in repair.

Larger library with plenty of reference books. Less fuel and better heating plants. Better discipline can be had where a principal is at the head of the school.

The cost of maintaining a large school is less than for several smaller schools. Teachers can justly be paid a larger salary for teaching a larger number of pupils.

Longer recitation periods. Teachers can devote more time to classes that need special help. Pupils are instructed in more subjects and therefore receive a better educational opportunity.

State aid is increased from $50 to $300 or $400, with special help for manual training, domestic science, agriculture and commercial departments.

CHIROPRACTORS WILL MEET HERE MAY 16

Arrangements were made at a meeting of chiropractors of the north-eastern district of Wisconsin at Green Bay Sunday for a combined meeting of practitioners in the northeastern districts in Appleton, Sunday, May 16. About 60 persons are expected to attend.

Drs. J. A. Rolfe and Robert Larsen of Appleton, attended the meeting in Green Bay Sunday. About 40 chiropractors, including officers of the eastern district, were in attendance. Business meetings were held in the afternoon and in the evening a clinic was held with an X-Ray spinograph. Three new members were admitted and two were dropped out because they were not graduates of a full three year course in chiropractic practice.

MOTORCYCLE BURNS WHEN GASOLINE TANK BREAKS

While driving from Green Bay Sunday afternoon, a motorcycle owned by Henry Liethen, Appleton, caught fire when the gasoline tank broke. Little damage was done to the machine but a considerable blaze resulted. Liethen escaped uninjured. The accident occurred about five o'clock on the Little Chute road.

Sunday was a poor day for motorists making the trip to Green Bay. One driver was struck by an automobile near De Pere, and seriously injured. One leg was almost severed from his body. He was taken to De Pere for treatment.

A. MOLINE PLOW MEANS SATISFACTION

The best plow for you is the one which will do the greatest amount of good work. Our success comes in building for you those plows which give the greatest field service.

MOLINE HIGH LIFT SULKY & GANG

Better plows than these cannot be bought at any price. With them you can do good plowing at all times and under all conditions. The reason why you get so much field service out of these plows is because they possess every plow improvement that has shown its worth. In one particular feature they are the most improved of all the frame type plows. They have a perfected foot lift device that gives the operator two possibilities in raising the bottoms—

- (1) The bottoms can be raised independently of the frame.
- (2) The frame can be leveled at the same time that the bottoms are raised.

These plows are made to run straight and true—the wheels do not crowd the furrow wall and the horses walk straight ahead without crowding or fretting. Side draft and landside friction are reduced to a minimum. These plows provide every advantage in springs and levers which give the operator full and easy control at all times.

Your Moline Dealer knows the worth of these plows—he will tell you all about them.

TAXES AND THE PUBLIC

A great many people do not realize the extent to which the excess profits and other war taxes have contributed to the high cost of living, and have kept on raising it higher and higher. Some persons have overlooked entirely the relation of existing taxation to the cost of living. As a matter of fact prices are high and continue high largely because taxes will not permit them to come down.

Excess profits and other extraordinary taxes now in effect do not come out of the normal profits of the company or corporation against which they are levied, as many persons suppose. In one sense they do not even come out of abnormal profits. Rather they make abnormal profits and come out of the pockets of the people in increased prices. There is not a business in America subject to war taxes which has not passed the "burden" on to the consumer, and in the great majority of cases they have furnished it well with extras.

The war taxes have compelled every profitable enterprise to take steps to counteract them, otherwise they would have been all but taxed out of existence. There are even now some cases in which corporations pay a considerable tax on an actual business loss for the year. The plan has worked this way: A business that last year paid excess profits and other unusual taxes of say $10,000, which probably were close to 25 per cent of its net earnings, immediately took steps to recoup this year by adjusting costs and prices on a basis that would yield increased profits sufficient to cover the estimated current taxes, with a liberal margin for "safety."

The next year it does the same, and so on indefinitely. Taxes go on increasing along with other costs and prices are periodically elevated to meet them. As the gross receipts and net earnings expand taxes grow larger, and one keeps chasing the other upstairs step by step. We venture to say there is not a concern in the country which has not felt not only justified but compelled to produce larger net earnings in order to provide for the heavy taxes. It is necessary to do this or be taxed out of business.

And the consumer pays the taxes, every last penny of them. He reads with glowing satisfaction that the Thus And So Corporation paid an excess profits tax this year of $860,000, and imagines, poor man, that this generous contribution to the national exchequer relieves the multitude from taxes to that amount. "Good for them," he mentally says. "They are making a barrel of money, and they can well afford to pay." Then he goes out to buy a pair of shoes, digs down to the tune of $12.00 to $18.00 and whistles to think of his ever being separated from that amount of coin for footwear. He has paid his part of the excess profits tax of the Thus And So Corporation, but he doesn't figure it that way. It's only the infernal high cost of living to him, the causes are too indefinite to be interesting.

The income tax law is correct in principle. It has taken several billion dollars out of the country to meet the cost of the war, and on top of that it has taken several billions more in high price suction. It has been made the excuse for profiteering in many instances and for higher prices in all instances. These billions do not come out of the coffers of the corporations. They come out of the pockets of the lowly consumer. Not one escapes. He helps to pay excess profits taxes every time he spends a five-cent piece, and a bonus besides. Then the nominal taxpayer pyramids again, the consumer comes across, another pyramid and on and on we go to newer heights of inflation.

Would it not be better to reorganize our system of war taxation to make it a little more honest at the real point of contact, viz., the consumer? Would it not be better to take out some of the excessive taxation at the source of origin, and spread it over the surface in a direct consumer's tax at the place of real payment? That would at least help to stop the pyramiding and to some extent profiteering. Moreover, in the latter case the consumer would know precisely what tax he was paying, because he would pay direct to the government and not to the corporation and its purveying mediums. If the public thinks it is saving anything through the heavy excess profits taxes paid by corporations and business enterprise it is deluding itself most grievously. The income taxes have all been paid by the people at large and they have cost them more money than any other kind of taxation at any time in the history of the country. They have been an expensive luxury to the public, but what the public doesn't know doesn't hurt it. And it gives the politicians at Washington something to which they may point with pride in their ceaseless and praiseworthy efforts to run down wealth and punish the rich.

HOOVER'S FIRST SPONSOR

The New York World, the first promoter of the Hoover "boom," has been placed in an awkward position by the former food administrator's announcement that he is a Republican and would not accept the Democratic party's nomination if offered him. In its editorial launching the Hoover boom the World declared its readiness to support its favorite as a Democrat, as a leader of a third party, and even as a Republican. But the World evidently believed that Hoover would accept a Democratic nomination, basing the expectation on the fact that in 1918 he urged the election of a Democratic congress so that a war administration could continue readily to function. Though disappointed, the World still professes its admiration for Mr. Hoover as "a great administrator, a champion of right, justice and liberty, as an ardent believer in organized peace, as a statesman who understands the complicated problems that have come out of the war and who has the ability and the courage to meet them."

This admiration is no doubt sincere, and there is no reasonable foundation for the charge that the World "boomed" Hoover merely with a view to split the Republican party and cause the history of 1912 to be repeated. In that case the World would be likely to go on booming Hoover to the last minute—thus helping to embarrass the strong Republican element opposed to him—instead of slowing up and failing to reassert its determination to support him on any ticket whatsoever. The real truth appears to be that the New York World, having miscalculated and now being deeply disappointed, is greatly troubled to know just what to do.

Today's Poem

When the season's beginning
And our team is winning
The pennant on paper and prospects and form,
It's well to remember
There'll be a September.
And then, will our boast and our boast be as warm?

It's no lie, or libel
(We'll swear by the Bible)
To say that our instincts are loyal just now,
But will they diminish,
Or stick to the finish?
Will we back up the boys to the end of the row?

With the band in the band-stand,
One's girl in the grand-stand,
And the team on its toes all the way to the flag,
O, then, my mortal
Will chirrup and chortle
And talk up the team with a bit of a brag.

But when the team's slowing
And tough is the going,
With some glass in the arm and some wood in the head,
O, then, are we rooting?
Or howling and hooting—
Is the ink in our arteries yellow, or red?

A town's reputation
Is judged through the nation
By its spirit of sport and the brand of its ball,
But surely you've noted
(For oft it is quoted)
That the lads on the diamond can not do it all.

So, now that we've started,
Are you souled and hearted
To back them through good and through evil report?
If so, as a fanner,
We hand you the banner:

Absent Minded

The Chinese must be the most absent minded people in the world. They invented more things than any other race of people—and then went and forgot them. A few inventions claimed as originally Chinese are: gunpowder, the telephone, stiffs, coal, paper money, cards, dominoes, chop suey, Chinese restaurants, rats, birds' nest soup and long finger nails.

Confessions of a Bride

(Copyright, 1920, by The Newspaper Enterprise Association.)

I Recognize My Fault of Being Suspicious of My Husband

I have about convinced myself that woman's prevailing sin is jealousy. I do not intend to be jealous of Bob. I do not wish to be jealous of him, nevertheless what he does—and what he does not do excite my suspicions. And he speaks of Katharine Miller I am worried. If he fails to refer to her I distrust him.

What is the poor man to do?
And what is his poor wife to do?

If jealousy, obvious or unconfessed, is the chronic state of wives, what are they all to do? I admit to myself, and I guess lots of wives will recognize the feeling, I admit that my jealousy is perfectly senseless.

And then I keep right on torturing myself. I refer to it often in my confessions because it harasses me. It haunts me day and night. It haunts many other wives in just the same idiotic way. I am sure.

I am always imagining things about my husband which I would not have proved for all the world. And well for me, they never do prove true!

Bob, I suppose, is like scores of other men who have chronically jealous wives. Men are really much finer than jealous women fancy. It would be an awful world if men were not nicer than my theory about them—when I am cynical.

When I am fair I can name dozens of frank and honorable gentlemen who have a proper pride in their own decency, just as Bob has. Instantly, they are much too nice to get mixed up in an unconventional love affair; some of them scorn a vulgar romance exactly as any nice woman would do; some are too busy to play truant to lawful love—and some are too poor.

The average wife's faith in her husband is safeguarded in countless ways, and if jealous wives would just count these ways over, occasionally, they would save themselves many a heart-break. And spare their poor defenseless husbands a lot of undeserved misery!

I am as tired of being jealous as I am of Chrys' ouija board. I consider them senseless, and still I cannot resist their attraction.

Next day another wireless vibrated above the waves of the Pacific and picked up by the operator on the "Blue Bird." Bob sent it at Martha Palmer's request. The little lawyer had discovered that Chrys had never been legally married to Hamilton Certeis. The license was a clever forgery and the ceremony had been faked. Martha couldn't have found this out while the war lasted, she said, but now that Certeis was discredited in New York, his former associates and employees were eager to betray him!

We agreed that Chrys ought to have the truth about her marriage before she ran any chance of meeting Certeis in Honolulu.

"How Chrys will loathe the news!" I said. "She hates to be deceived—except about spiritism. She is willing to be divorced at the cost of great publicity, rather than learn that she had been deceived into a mock wedding ceremony. How humiliated—and how furious she will be!"

"She'll rage," Bob agreed. "So would Dad—if he found it out. I've wired Chrys to keep the news from him. It might bring on another stroke of apoplexy. Or he might strangle Certeis. And get the bunch tied up in Honolulu indefinitely. I'd like to get all the Lormiers under one roof again—and let 'em start all over along nice commonplace lines."

"I can't see Chrys doing ordinary things," remarked. "And now she has a new motive for doing something most unusual. She will find some revenge for Certeis' deceit. I feel sure."

"I hope not, my love," said Bob.

"You'll see! I shouldn't be at all surprised if she joined Katharine Miller in a little sleuthing."

"For the love of Mike, Jane, stop your dreaming! Wake up!"

"You'll see," I repeated. "Chrys is desperate—and ready for any adventure because of that unfortunate affair with Jordan Spence. She never was conventional, you know. And she reads the queerest books! And consider her ouija 'controls.' If she lets herself go—you'll see!"

"WHAT WILL WOMEN DO?" POLITICIANS ASK

Washington.—Facing the probability that the women of the United States will vote next November, politicians are seriously taking stock of what the female vote will mean.

That it will have more than usual importance because of some of the issues of this year's campaign is recognized by all political observers here.

The strong probability that prohibition enforcement will be one of the issues, and that the treaty and the league of nations will form another is one of the reasons more than perturbation of attention is being given to plans for capturing the woman's vote.

Time was when the "drys" regarded the woman vote as certain to be cast in their favor. But from reports brought in from various parts of the country to party headquarters here, the women this year would be just as likely to vote for a more liberal policy of prohibition enforcement as their menfolk.

The same is true of the treaty issue. Advocates of the league laid much store by the fact that the women of the country, if they ever got a chance to vote on the league question, would be overwhelmingly for it as a war preventive.

But political scouts report that the women are no more enthusiastic about the treaty than the men, but that both men and women want some kind of league or organization that will prevent war.

So that when the political wise men here sit down to figure out the effect of the women's votes this year, they can't do it. They say the old saying that women will vote as the men vote has been exploded, and that the women will form an independent electorate. Not only are they independent in their political views, but they are not as a class platform, or behind one banner or on one platform, they could be classified and the effect of their votes on any particular issue might in a degree be measured, politicians said. But as things stand, if the women get the vote next November, they are due to be "courted" by both parties most assiduously.

Women speakers will be sent out in large numbers, to work with small audiences of club-women, and civic organizations of women.

In presenting campaign issues, the woman vote will be played up to on the cost of living and kindred issues, political leaders said.

CABBAGE TREES

The backyard gardener grows cabbage, if he has plenty of space, but he grows cabbage plants.

On the island of Jersey, in the English channel, they have grown what might be called cabbage trees. These are wild cabbages, found through all of northern Europe, and as far east as Siberia.

The wild cabbage stalk has been known to reach 16 feet in height. Many attain 12 feet, and the woody stalks have been used for rafters by native builders. Walking sticks are made of the stems whittled down.

Our savage forefathers, thousands of years ago, dined on wild cabbage, the leaves being eaten. Cultivation has produced the tame cabbage, smaller in size, with a firmer head, and one better adapted to winter storage.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

Tuesday, April 23, 1895.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Lester Putney.

Miss Adelle Jennings of Neenah was the guest of Miss Maude Briggs.

Sam J. Ryan and William Nelson returned from a trout fishing trip with a big string of trout.

Quite a number of horses were stolen in Brown county the previous week.

Herbert Alward, formerly of Appleton, was appointed captain of the Chicago Athletic association baseball team.

A daughter was born to Dr. and Mrs. James Canavan.

The initial concert of the season given by the Third Regiment band was held at the armory the night previous and was a conspicuous success. The program was followed by dancing.

August Junge, employed at Fairbank's machine shop, had his arm badly lacerated by getting it caught between the boiler and wheel of a tractor.

Sheriff Delaney of Brown county offered a prize of $100 for the capture of four prisoners who escaped from the Green Bay jail.

A woman was knocked down by a bicycle rider on College avenue and sustained bruises but no serious injuries.

J. Sherburne established a stand just east of Solomon's grocery store for the sale of cigars, popcorn and candy.

The home of E. A. Richmond at 378 State street, which had been closed for a year, was entered by boys who ransacked the contents. They gained entrance by removing a panel from a rear door.

Dennis Stowe removed his house from the corner of North and Drew streets to the corner of North and Meade and on the vacant site was intending to build a handsome modern dwelling.

The condition of Mrs. G. C. Jones, who had been ill for several weeks, was very critical.

"LIFE ON MARS"

(Continuation of Chap. X, by Prof. Scitall, per Fred Noble.)

By gradual accumulation of knowledge through long practice the ladies have become able to preserve the shape and color of youthful appearance in the face long after the body is warped and cracked. As on our own planet, lotions and pastes are used to fill up or gloss over the wrinkles and seams of age. An interested caterer to feminine beauty finally developed a flexible putty which could be used to fill hollow cheeks and wrinkles and which had all the appearance of skin-covered flesh, and instances have been known where the young men considered it quite a practical joke to wreck airplanes in which their lady loves were flying in order to assure themselves of the gentleness of their youth.

After long and patient study the ladies have acquired a truly remarkable understanding of the psychology of the males. Among other things done for effect, they wear long skirts and skillfully drape them to appear accidentally caught up higher than intended—far enough, indeed, to show the ankle and vicinity. This is found to be more effective than much shorter skirts.

It is curious that men recognize their lady acquaintances, not by their faces but by their ankles. A certain disguise from the males is a long skirt or stuffy boot, but indoors the face is used for recognition, except that at all times and places a man recognizes his wife by her face.

Every married man employs a private detective whose duty it is to report upon the daily acquisitions and plans and secrets of the neighbor next door. He then duplicates or surpasses the neighbor in these things. This method is found to be more peaceful than to have his wife inform him of them.

I was able to learn that in most cases the detective is also in the employ of the wife and in this capacity he gives a minute report of the activities of the husband in his—ah—er—you might say—ah, social interests.

This is complete peace and understanding assured.

Cartoonist Briggs says "the first hundred years are the hardest," and so be it, but to the neophyte colyum conductor let us slip across into that the first hundred colyums are the easiest.

FAT FOLKS HAVE A HEART.

Read the title to suit yourself, with or without a comma after the folks. I mean it both ways.

Now this Karel regimen and all of that reduction business is for people who are definitely and unquestionably fat, not for young women who yearn to resemble those caricatures that hang clothes on to make the credulous sex feel that there is always something better than what they've got.

I do not advise even frankly fat little girls and boys to attempt any reduction regimen save by the direction of their own personal medical attendants. Therefore I will not send the Karel regimen or other instructions about reduction to any reader who has the earmarks of being a Miss and fails to make known her age, height and weight. If she is a Mrs., I don't care how young she may be, she is welcome to all the information I can give her about reduction, and I don't care how skinny she may be either. But little boys and little girls are not to ask me to help them reduce. They are to ask their own doctors, if they think they ought to reduce—and sometimes they ought.

It seems to be a characteristic of the lovely sex that no member of it is ever satisfied with her lot in life. If she is skinny she wants to grow fat; if she is fat she wants to grow skinny; and by jove, even if she is ideal in weight, for her age and height, she still wants to grow skinnier! Yes, sir. It's a fact. I was mightily discomfited when I discovered it, too, for there was no telling how many ideal bits of restless femininity I had started Karelizing and dieting in other ways to reduce, all unbeknownst, trusting in my innocent way in the lady's unsupported assertion that she was entirely too stout.

Here is a little table. Check yourselves, girls. Check yourself, and unless you are more than ten per cent overweight under thirty years of age, please check your impulse to ask me how you can reduce. But if you are even a twenty-twenty bit overweight over thirty, fire away; I'm always glad to help a lady live longer. It seems that excess of weight within ten per cent of the average is rather a favorable condition for persons under thirty; yes, and it makes them look a lot nicer too. But excess of weight above the average after the age of thirty is an unfavorable sign, a harbinger of short life, and an unbecoming blemish into the bargain. The table begins with age twenty. Boys and girls under that age are not to write to me on this subject.

Age	20-24 yrs.	25-29 yrs.	30-34 yrs.	35-39 yrs.
Height, in.	Lbs.	Lbs.	Lbs.	Lbs.
48	116	125	132	139
49	119	127	134	141
50	121	128	135	143
51	124	129	136	144
52	127	131	138	146
53	129	133	140	148
54	132	135	142	150
55	134	137	144	152
56	137	140	147	155
57	140	143	150	157
58	143	146	153	160

For any age up to age 30 an excess of weight amounting to one-tenth of the figure mentioned is favorable.

The perfect or ideal feminine is 65 inches tall and weighs 129 pounds at age 30.

All of the figures given represent weight without clothing. A woman's clothing weighs from six to twelve pounds.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS.

Vitamins.

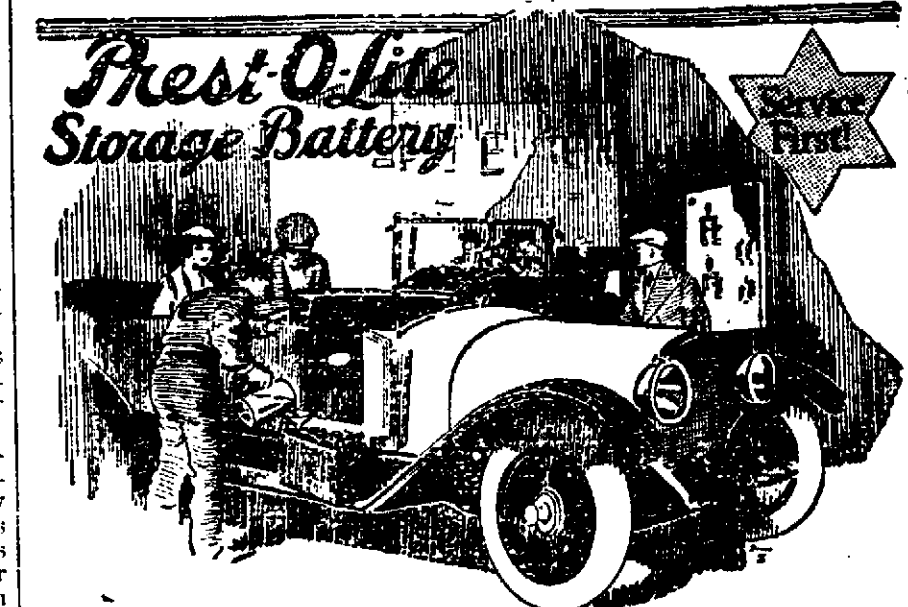

Please tell me which foods are rich and which are poor in vitamins. (E. J. O.)

ANSWER—These are rich in water-soluble food accessory factors: Embryo of cereals, milk, legumes, kidney, liver. These are rich in fat-soluble food accessory factor: Butter, cod liver oil, egg yolk, cream or milk, the green vegetables and relishes.

Hot Water.

I recently heard a lecturer advocate taking fifteen glasses of hot water a day. Would that be too much for a person not trying to reduce? Will hot water reduce a person? (Mrs. R. N. B.)

ANSWER—It will not reduce, unless by impairing digestion. Fifteen glasses a day is not too much to drink, but I would not advise taking it hot, though there is no harm in drinking a glass or two of hot water every day if you wish.

REPORTS OF BAD WEATHER AND BAD WEATHER FAIL TO BOOST THE GRAIN FUTURES TODAY

By United Press Special Wire
Chicago.—Despite general reports of bad roads and bad weather grain futures on the Chicago board of trade were lower today. Unseasoned heavy buyers of recent weeks was the principal feature of the trading. There was no response when bears began to press the market more vigorously than they have lately. Reports of financial depression in Japan were seized upon as a bearish factor. Provisions fell with the grain.

May corn opened 3/4c down at $1.71 but strengthened during the forenoon and advanced 5/8c. July corn, up 1/4c on opening at $1.66 1/2, lost that fraction later. September corn opened at $1.61 1/2, down 1/4c, and dropped 3/4c further thereafter.

May oats after opening 1/4c up at 97 1/4c, lost the same fraction. July oats opened at 89 1/4c, up 1/4c, and thereafter lost 1/4c.

IRELAND'S CAUSE IS UPHELD BY TWO APPLETON SPEAKERS

ATTORNEY T. H. RYAN AND THE
REV. W. J. FITZMAURICE ARE SPEAKERS IN NEENAH

The cause of self determination for Ireland was espoused by Attorney Thomas H. Ryan and Father W. J. Fitzmaurice, in addresses before the Friends of Irish Freedom at Menasha Sunday night.

"England," Attorney Ryan declared, "has misused her custodianship of the Irish nation and is no longer fit to continue as ruler of Ireland."

The speaker claimed that the persecutions of the British had resulted in a big decrease in the population of Ireland, stating that the number had dropped from 9,000,000 to about 7,000,000 people.

Father Fitzmaurice said that America owed Ireland a debt of gratitude which should be repaid by aiding the Irish to secure freedom. Thirty-eight per cent of the A. E. F. members were native Irish or of Irish descent, he said.

"In order to live up to our traditions, the traditions upon which our very national life is founded, we owe it Ireland to help her gain freedom. No nation has ever attained complete economic and political freedom unaided. Ireland asks us for recognition as an independent nation and moral support. We should give it."

"Only the indomitable spirit and optimism of the Irish people have enabled them to thus far withstand the oppression which has been heaped upon their heads," Father Fitzmaurice said in conclusion.

GRAND CHUTE TOWN HALL TO BE TURNED INTO LOTS

Owing to the scarcity of houses the town hall of the town of Grand Chute, an old and familiar landmark, is being converted into a flat building by the Fraser Lumber and Manufacturing company which has just been awarded the contract. The building will be equipped with all modern conveniences. The Fraser company has also commenced work on a new residence on Nelson street which is being erected by William McCarty.

Norman N. Schomisch returned to Madison this morning to resume his duties at the state university.

Don't Spoil Your Hair By Washing It

When you wash your hair, be careful what you use. Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali, which is very injurious, as it dries the scalp and makes the hair brittle.

The best thing to use is Mulsified coconut oil shampoo, for this is pure and entirely greaseless. It's very cheap and beats anything else all to pieces. You can get this at any drug store, and a few ounces will last the whole family for months.

Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in, about a teaspoonful is all that is required. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, cleanses thoroughly, and rinses out easily. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and is soft, fresh looking, bright, fluffy, wavy and easy to handle. Besides, it loosens and takes out every particle of dust, dirt and dandruff.

The Green Bay Press-Gazette says, "He is a master of the violin and an artist of great experience. For several years has been a member of the Cincinnati Symphony orchestra, and he also toured the United States as a solo violinist for the Redpath Lyceum bureau."

The Cincinnati Inquirer says of Mr. Fullinwider, "The surprise of the evening was the wonderful violin playing of Percy Fullinwider in the beautiful E minor concerto by Rode."

He produces a rich, powerful tone and has at his command a remarkably mature technique. His reading of the number was thoroughly musical, and the ovation accorded him was justly earned."

VOLLEY BALL ARTISTS SPLIT MONDAY'S GAMES

The evening class of the Y. M. C. A. went fifty-fifty in the volleyball contest Monday night. The first team, captained by Blodgett proved too fast an aggregation for the St. Paul club men, winning two out of three contests. In the second match of the evening the noon class defeated the evening boys two out of three contests. The losers' alibi was that they were not accustomed to playing with electric lights.

FARMERS OPEN WAR ON MILK COMPANY

REFUSAL OF COMPANY TO DEAL WITH ORGANIZATION RESULTS IN BOYCOTT BY FARMERS

Racine, Wis.—Baked by the great majority of farmers and dairymen of southeastern Wisconsin, the Milk Producers' Co., marketing association, is continuing its determined fight against the Nestle's Food Co., a Maine corporation, in an effort to compel the company to deal with the association as a body and not with members as individuals in the purchase of milk.

Resulted From Boycott

As a result of the Nestle's Food Co.'s refusal to do business with the marketing association, the producers are no longer making deliveries to condensaries of the company at Burlington, and Peacotopia, Wis., and Greys Lake, Ill., which the Nestle's Co. recently purchased from the Wisconsin Condensed Milk Co. Nearly the entire product is being delivered at the creameries operated by the association in Racine, Kenosha and Walworth counties, Wis., and Lake County, Ill. Hundreds of thousands of pounds are being delivered daily to these stations. Butter and cheese are being made or the cream is extracted and marketed, the producer accepting the skim milk, for which he pays one-half cent a pound, while for milk delivered he receives $2.90 for each 100 pounds.

Build New Stations

New stations, butter and cheese factories are being erected throughout the dairying districts for the purpose of using the entire product of the dairymen and prevent the Nestle's Food Co. from obtaining milk for their condensaries in Wisconsin and Illinois.

Say Farmers Lose

It is claimed that it costs $3.70 per cwt. to produce milk in this district and that only $2.90 is being paid for the product. As a result the dairymen are suffering heavy losses and unless there is a marked advance in prices, scores of the largest dairy herds in southeastern Wisconsin will be disposed of, the dairymen assert.

"Smile at Miles"

Born in 1839 Dr. Caldwell Still in His Office Daily

Wonderful vigor of the founder of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin.
Millions now use his famous prescription

Physicians know that good health depends largely upon proper digestion and elimination and that much sickness results from constipation. No one knows this better than the "family" doctor, the general practitioner.

Dr. W. B. Caldwell of Monticello, Illinois, was and is a family doctor. The whole human body, not any small part of it, was his practice. More than half his "calls" were on women, children and babies. They say the ones most often sick. But their illnesses were usually of a minor nature—colds, fevers, headaches, biliousness—and all of them required first a thorough evacuation. They were constipated.

Dr. Caldwell in the course of 40 years' practice, for he was graduated from Rush Medical College back in 1875, had found a good deal of success in such cases with a prescription of his own containing simple laxative herbs with pepsin. In 1892 he decided to use this formula in the manufacture of a medicine to be known as Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, and in that year the preparation was first placed on the market. The picture of Dr. Caldwell that appears on the package was taken in that year.

The preparation immediately had as great a success in the drug stores as it previously had in the doctor's private practice. Today the third generation is using it.

Mothers are giving it to their children who were given it by their mothers. Every second of the working day someone somewhere is going into a drug store to buy it, for Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is selling at the rate of over 6 million bottles a year.

Its great success is based on merit, on repeated buying, on one satisfied user telling another. There are thousands of homes in this country that are never without a bottle of Syrup Pepsin, and the formulator of that prescription is fortunately living to see its wonderful success.

Women, children and elderly people are especially benefitted by Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. While it is promptly effective on the most robust constitution and in the most obstinate cases, it is mild and gentle in its action and does not cause griping and strain. Containing neither opiates nor narcotics, it is safe for the tiniest baby and children like it and take it willingly.

Every drug store sells Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. Keep a bottle in your home. Where many live someone is sure to need it quickly.

HARROWING STORY OF LIFE IN PERSIA TOLD LAST SUNDAY

THE REV. B. S. GIFFORD, FORMER MISSIONARY IN PERSIA,
ADDRESSES UNION
MEETING

Armenians and Syrians in Persia underwent thrilling and horrible experiences during the world war. Christians, especially, were subjected to untold terrors.

These facts were brought out in stirring detail by the Rev. Burt S. Gifford, a member of the American Relief commission at Tabriz, Persia, who spoke at the union service Sunday evening in the First Congregational church. The Rev. Mr. Gifford was engaged in missionary work under the Presbyterian missionary board and was at his post during the height of the war. He spoke Sunday morning at the Memorial Presbyterian church, telling of the particular work done by the mission stations of his own denomination. He stated that Persia showed the oppression inflicted by the Turks and Khourds and later by the Bolsheviks, all because Russia did not continue fighting. His description of the escape of the women and children over the mountains was a thrilling climax to his relation of his personal experiences.

The speaker briefly related some of his early impressions of the religious customs of the Persian people and then went into the details of how the war made direct and indirect changes on the mission stations. He stated that Persia was pro-German all through the war although it was commonly understood that she was neutral. When her people were dying of starvation and pestilence, the Shah offered no assistance whatever. Any claims that the policies of the British were an attempt to grab Persia, he stated, were a gross fabrication.

When the Russians withdrew their army in 1915, the Christians and unprotected natives in the territory, where the Rev. Mr. Gifford was stationed, depended on the Americans for protection. It was not long before a vast army of Turks and Khourds swarmed into the neighborhood and started their pillaging and massacre. By diplomacy as far fetched as American wit could make it, the enemy was stopped for some time but conditions finally became so serious that everybody had to take refuge in the mission compound. How they lived and what they suffered was a ghastly tale, according to the speaker. The compound covered six acres of land and in that small area 17,000 people were huddled together. Food was scarce and the water supply was limited. Here they battled with the age Khourds for 24 long weeks. The soldiers had brought typhus, typhoid and smallpox with them, and these diseases soon infested the compound. No bodies could be taken outside of the compound for burial, and graves were therefore dug within the interior. The situation got to the point where 35 to 40 were dying every day. Christians were often dragged from the enclosure by Khourds on some false political accusation and put to death. The Russians returned about the time things were at their worst and again extended the protection of their armies. Natives were sent back to their villages and the work of the Americans then resolved itself into a program of rehabilitation. Homes had been destroyed, cattle and machinery stolen and fields devastated by the Turks and Khourds. Things were going nicely until America entered the war. Because this country failed to declare war, although it had withdrawn its diplomats, the Rev. Mr. Gifford states that the Turks were left to treat the Americans as they pleased. In some districts, they were treated with respect, but in most of them there was persecution. Conditions got to the point where the missionaries, the women and children and orphans had to leave and attempt to go within the British lines. Bolshevism had broken out and the Russian protection turned to a reign of terror. Persians also began firing on the Christians.

To escape this situation it was necessary for the American missionaries to journey 221 miles over the mountains. A wagon train was made up, providing crude conveyance for what provisions could be found, and for the women and children. Steep passes had to be climbed, making it necessary to unload the wagons on one side of the incline, take the wagons over and reload. Three wagons were precipitated over embankments, but the occupants miraculously escaped with their lives. A cloud burst occurred just as they crossed one mountain stream, sweeping away the last two wagons of their train, killing the horses but not the men. When near the end of their trip, they met a British armored car and three Ford cars loaded with British soldiers. The speaker said a Ford was never a more welcome sight. It took 21 days for this perilous journey with its dangerous exposures to war, weather and starvation, the party finally arriving safely within the British line. They learned that there had been a famine comprising 80,000 Christians had been reduced to 55,000 because of Turkish massacres.

In conclusion the Rev. Mr. Gifford stated that a British relief camp is maintained in that region now at Bagdad, protecting 40,000 Christians.

"Armenians and Syrians are without an international friend," he stated. "They are looking across the seas to see who is going to champion their cause. They look to that nation which has poured money into their country for relief. The call of duty says the American people cannot refuse. Experiments in Cuba and the Philippines prove that America can give to these people these same principles of education, citizenship and character. While that question must wait, there is a moral mandatory that requires action now. It must be a campaign that opens up treasures of resources and money to these people that call across the seas."

Strong Women

BY DR. VALENTINE MOTT.

Women and men too—are just as strong and healthy as their blood. Vigor and health come with good blood. Without good red blood a woman has a weak heart and poor nerves.

In the spring is the best time to take stock of one's condition. If the blood is thin and watery, face pale or pimply, if one is tired and listless, generally weak, a Spring Tonic should be taken. An old-fashioned herbal remedy that was used by nearly everybody 50 years ago is still safe and sane because it contains no alcohol or narcotic. It is made of roots and herbs and called Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. If druggists do not keep it in tablet form, send 60 cents for a vial to Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel in Buffalo, N. Y.

BETTER THAN CALOMEL

Thousands Have Discovered
Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets
are a Harmless Substitute

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the substitute for calomel—are a mild but sure laxative, and their effect on the liver is almost instantaneous. These little olive-colored tablets are the result of Dr. Edwards' determination not to treat liver and bowel complaints with calomel.

The pleasant little tablets do the good that calomel does, but have no bad after effects. They don't injure the teeth like strong liquids or calomel. They take hold of the trouble and quickly correct it. Why cure the liver at the expense of the teeth? Calomel sometimes plays havoc with the gums. So do strong liquids. It is best not to take calomel. Let Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets take its place.

Headaches, "dullness" and that lazy feeling come from constipation and a disordered liver. Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets when you feel "tired" and "heavy." They "clear" clouded brain and "perk up" the spirits. 10c and 25c.

PROFESSIONAL CAGE LEAGUE IS PLANNED

Organization of a professional basketball league to include Appleton was arranged at a meeting of Fond du Lac, Green Bay and Janesville basketball interests at Fond du Lac Saturday night. In addition to these cities, teams from Sheboygan, Beloit, Neenah and New London will be invited to enter.

According to the Fond du Lac Reporter, only New London, Sheboygan and Appleton are uncertain, and "Appleton, it is believed will become interested, inasmuch as the college city has excellent facilities for the promotion of the sport."

The plan calls for two home games in each town every week during the winter season. This would provide four games a week for each team. Outside players could be used, as the league would be professional.

ROLFE HOME ON VISIT FROM MILITARY HOSPITAL

Richard Rolfe, Sherman Place, veteran of the Canadian army, is spending a few days' turlough on a United States military hospital at Chicago where he had been receiving treatments for wounds received in action for several months. Mr. Rolfe's condition is better than a few months ago but he is still suffering much pain and inconvenience. He expects to be transferred to a hospital in Boston shortly after his return to Chicago.

Mr. Rolfe said that about 600 men are receiving treatments in the Chicago hospital. A majority of the men were gassed. Charles Comiskey, owner of the Chicago White Sox, gave free tickets to all the patients who were able to attend games.
